Alfredsson said that "it's too early" to say if he will return. He had 23 goals and 26 assists for 49 points last season. Alfredsson missed all but five games because of an injury he suffered on Sept. 7, the same day the team announced that he would miss the rest of the season. He had an epidural injection in his lower back, an injury that was initially thought to be minor. Last season was his fifth with the Senators and he has won two Lady Byng trophies and the James Norris Memorial Trophy as the NHL's top defenceman in 2014.

Alfredsson has played in 1,122 regular-season games in his career, and with the Senators, with 1014 games. He has scored 962 points and has 1329 assists.}
